A REPUBLICAN SCREEN.

It Denounces, Demands, Regrets and Lies Like Sheet.

Springfield, Ohio, June 11.—The republican state convention held in the new wigwam here at 10 o'clock this morning and was called to order by Jos. K. O'Neill, chairman of the state committee. There was a full attendance of delegates and over 1000 people were packed in the wigwam. Hon. J. D. Taylor was elected temporary chairman and made an address of which the main points were given in a former issue of the Examiner. Mr. Taylor began his address by saying: "Since you last met in convention, the most anomalous event in history has transpired in our country. By a continuation of crimes, against the constitution, the government, with all its great interests has passed out of the control of the party that saved it from treason and dishonor, into the hands of the party which, through its leaders, sought for long and bloody years to tear it from its proud place among the nations of the earth and hurl its discredited fragments into the vortex of anarchy and dissolution. The right to vote according to the constitution of the United States is the concern of the whole people and must be secured at all hazards. Existing guarantees must be strictly maintained and additional ones provided, if necessary, that equal protection of the suffrage shall not fall or be abridged in any way through the connivance, neglect or fraud of any of the States of the union. The democratic party which owes its national victory last fall to the faithful suppression of the ballot must be looked to for the enforcement of these constitutional guarantees and the hope of the friends of equal laws and equal suffrage is in the republican party which has pledged to wage the contest to a successful end.

We want such legislation as will harmonize the relation of labor and capital, promote the welfare of the people and protect and foster the industries of the state.

We favor the establishment of a national bureau of industry, the enforcement of the eight hour law, and the adequate appropriation from the public revenues for general education wherever the same is needed.

We denounce the importation of contract laborers and favor the most stringent laws to prevent it.

We are opposed to the acquisition of the public lands or any part thereof to non-resident aliens.

We are in favor of a protective tariff which will encourage American development and furnish remunerative employment to American labor, and we are opposed to the British policy advocated by the democratic party under the guise of a tariff for revenue only.

We demand restoration of the wool duty of 1867, or its full equivalent, and we denounce the democratic congress for failing to make good the pledges they made in this behalf.

We condemn the action of the present administration in lowering the national flag upon the public buildings as a mark of respect to the man who dishonored the one and sought to destroy the other, who planned with cruel determination in his hiding place in Canada to overwhelm the nation with fire and to sweep to death their inhabitants by scattering everywhere the germs of infectious and fatal disease.

We assert that the elevation to important and honorable offices of the government, of unrepentant rebels, whose political disabilities have not been removed is a flagrant violation of the constitution and an insult to the loyal people of the whole country, and we denounce the administration of President Cleveland for its general discrimination in the appointments so far made against Union Soldiers and in favor of men who fought against the union.

The republican party, which enacted the present civil service law, will faithfully maintain it and cheerfully aid in all needed amendments to give it full force and it is committed to extend the law to all grades of service to which it is applicable and ample appropriations should be made to enforce it in letter and in spirit, and all laws at variance with the objects of existing reform legislation should be repealed.

Having accomplished this much the party pledges itself to still further and higher reform. It looks with deepest regret upon the failure of the present administration to promote the reforms of the civil service so auspiciously begun under republican administration.

The republican party of Ohio demands the repeal of the limitation contained in the pension arrears act of 1878, that all invalid soldiers shall share equally and their

ENGLAND'S CRISIS.

Opinions from all sides. The Queen
Obstinate, and the Tories Ready.

London, June 11.—Everything in regard to the government crisis is still unsettled. The standard (conservative) daily, the Times, has been ready to form a government at the bidding of the Queen. The News (liberal) urges Gladstone to persist in his resolution to resign and says: "Another cause is said to have ruled him to return to power sooner or later before. The Times advises the ministers to reconsider their intention to resign and says the vote Monday night was due to the determined measures of the liberal whigs, for getting members to attend. It plainly intimates that the ministers will find in the queen an awkward customer who will insist on being given urgent reasons for their proposed action and even then will probably refuse to accept their resignation.

A FRENCH VIEW OF IT.
Paris, June 11.—The political crisis in British affairs strengthens the belief that the Internal Sea Canal commission, at present in session will dissolve without reaching any decision on the canal, and it is thought that after dissolution, drafts of the proposed treaty, each containing the full text of all rival versions of clauses will be submitted to the different powers who will through their respective diplomatic channels, deal with the question involved.

A GERMAN OPINION.
Berlin, June 11.—German diplomats allege that one of the causes, and the greatest, of the resignation of the Gladstone government was the failure of the secret treaty between England and Germany.

WHAT RUSSIA THINKS.
St. Petersburg, June 11.—Mr. Gladstone's retirement from the management of British affairs, it is generally believed, will not affect the settlement of the Afghan frontier question.

A ROYAL REMOR.
It is rumored that the queen has sent a telegram to Mr. Gladstone resigning him to reconsider his decision to resign. There is no reason however to believe that Gladstone will, under the existing conditions, consent to a resumption of office.

THE QUEEN RETURNS.
An official report was issued to-day which stated that the queen, after a short illness, will be able to return to the palace to-morrow. This is a sure sign of the advent of the queen, as Windsor is only 30 minutes by rail from London. The return of her majesty will greatly expedite the public business at the present crisis.

GLADSTONE'S SHERMANS.
London, June 11.—The Standard says it is understood the queen has requested Gladstone to submit to her his views in full of political crisis in order that arrangements may be made to avert an immediate change in the ministry. "It is not expected" the Standard continues, "the queen will accept the resignations of the ministers or that any final decision will be reached concerning the question of changing the government until her majesty's return to Windsor Castle. There exists a suspicion, that daily deepens, that the Gladstone ministry courted the queen's defection for the purpose of concealing under the excitement their own discussions. Statements made since the defeat by some liberal members who absented themselves from the vote on the fatal decision show that the government might have saved themselves on that vote if they had cared seriously to do so.

A FRENCH BOLCAUNT.
Twenty-four Lives Crushed—
200 People Wounded.

Paris, June 11.—At Thiers, a town in the department of Puy de Dôme a murder trial has been in progress for some days. Yesterday, the last day of the trial, the court house was crowded with men and women anxious to witness the closing scenes and when the people were leaving after the adjournment of the court and were jammed upon a stone stairway leading to the street, the lofty staircase fell. The scene that followed was appalling; immense masses of masonry from above crashed down on the struggling people below,

"Our Free Schools, the Pride

Examiner Wishes to Offer.

WACO CAN BOAST OF HER PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The way they are conducted. A few years ago very little attention was paid to free schools in Texas, but in a few years hence they will take the lead of all the institutions of becoming in the long star state. In thorough training, discipline, and a knowledge of everything pertaining to an education, teachers in the public schools in Waco deserve the greatest praise for their untiring efforts in training the eighteen hundred children who flourish their exercises yesterday, and who will have vacation on the first Monday in October. The city council last year very wisely concluded to build more houses for the accommodation of the children who were crowded in rented buildings and brick buildings were erected in the first, second and third wards. These houses have all the modern conveniences and are an ornament to our city. Thanks to the city school committee, Col. R. B. Parrot, chairman, and the city council for erecting them when they did.

THE EXAMINER wishes to note the increase in the number of scholars since the session opened in October, 1884. At the end of the first week the enrollment stood: Whites, 588; colored, 278; total, 866. The first week in January the enrollment stood: Whites, 726; colored, 271; total, 997. At the close of the term it stood: Whites, 1080; colored, 768; total, 1848. These figures show how our schools have grown during the nine months of the year. Now the buildings are full and others will have to be erected in a short while. The EXAMINER says first of all now, as buildings are being erected for the colored schools, a central building for the higher grades.

In all the ward schools yesterday examinations were held in the fourth and fifth grades, and at the Central school in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. In company with Supervisor J. N. Gallagher, an EXAMINER reporter took in some of the schools yesterday, and was agreeably surprised at what he saw and heard. The children were polite and attentive, and in every instance they answered questions quickly and correctly. As all the ward schools were being examined in the same grades, special mention can be made except where the Hinchman prizes were awarded to pupils in the eight schools in the city for proficiency, which are as follows:

Central school—Margie King, aged 12, in the sixth grade. Rev. A. A. Horner delivered the prize in a neat and appropriate speech.

First ward school—Tyrus Shaw, aged 9, second grade.

Second ward school—Laura Bynum, aged 13, fourth grade.

Third ward school—Pattie King, aged 10, third grade.

Fifth ward school—Lizzie Gordy, aged 14, second grade.

In the colored schools, the prizes were awarded as follows: Howard school—Robert Lewis, aged 11, years, sixth grade. First Street Oscar K. Downs, aged 9 years second grade. East Waco, Lena George, aged 15 years, first grade.

At the Central school, Prof. Pash had a special programme arranged for the afternoon's exercises, and a large number of ladies and gentlemen were present. Every one was highly pleased with what he saw and heard during the afternoon.

After a few remarks by Prof. J. N. Gallagher, the exercises closed.

GRINDING THROUGH THEIR FLESH AND BONES.

Unsettling and unquieting the fall of the stair case and the strike of the people lying help less in the ruin caused a panic in the court room and there was a rush for the door. The people who were in front were unable to withstand the pressure from behind and were hurled down upon the men and women crushed in the fall of the staircase and when the people in the street were striving to rescue. When at length the panic had exhausted itself and the immense stone steps of the fallen stairs had been removed from the stair case and the injured number in all about 200. Many of the injured are women and their wounds are of a serious character.

Still later dispatches from Thiers grinded the calamity by far more disastrous in its consequences than earlier dispatches indicate. The dead already numbered twenty-four and the total number of the wounded is now placed at a 150; of these fourteen are seriously injured and some of them will die.

Murderous Indians Again at Work.

Tombstone, Arizona, June 11.—A courier has just arrived from Bisbee with intelligence that the Apaches killed W. W. Daniels, a mounted inspector of customs, a short distance from Bisbee. The receipt of this information at Bisbee, an armed force started in pursuit of the Indians. The courier was dispatched here for assistance. About the Indians then numbered fifty volunteers, started after the Indians to-day.

The following message was forwarded from Tombstone to Grover Cleveland, president of the United States: "About the Indians then numbered fifty volunteers, started after the Indians to-day."

There are plenty of soldiers in the country, but they are incompetent to do anything. Can you not help us? (Signed) R. S. Hatch, sheriff of the county treasurer A. T. Jones, county recorder; John Montgomery, chairman board supervisors; John C. Eastman, collector of customs; John P. Puma, postmaster.

FLOODS IN MEXICO.

City of Mexico, June 11.—It is difficult to obtain reliable information as to the extent and nature of the damage done by the bursting of water at Cuernavaca. It appears there were two floods caused by water spouts; the first occurring at Puebla Cuernavaca, near Lagos on the night of the 6th, and the other at Cuernavaca, on the night of the 6th. At Puebla Cuernavaca the water rose to the height of twenty-five feet, sweeping everything in its way, and the loss of life is reported as very heavy.

At Cuernavaca the loss of life was less, but the destruction of property was much greater; the Mexican Central railway track is reported as washed away and great damage done and all passenger trains from the north are delayed.

THE RUSSIAN SITUATION.

St. Petersburg, June 11.—The police authorities state that the situation in that city are seriously divided in opinion as to the best means of continuing their agitation. The majority favor the abandonment of terrorism and the making an effort to effect a revolution by pacific means. The anarchist leaders, Moravitch and Kavalan, have been arrested at Kioff and a few named Solomon Gritsch, has been arrested for sedition practiced at Kharkoff.

1000 Homeless Families.

Havana, June 11.—The mail steamer which left St. Thomas June 5th, arrived here to-day, bringing the latest news from Cape Haytien to May 30. In the conflagration at Aux Cayes on May 15th, 1000 buildings were destroyed and 1000 families were rendered homeless. The loss is estimated at over $2,000,000. The government sent $20,000 and supplies of provisions to aid the sufferers.

THE MASHI AGAIN ON DECK.

Chicago, June 11.—Frank Ingelhart, who, in November 1884, was connected with one of the most sensational cases that ever occurred in St. Louis, attempted suicide yesterday afternoon by jumping from a pier near the suburban town of Lake View but he was rescued by fishermen and taken to the country hospital where it was found he was on the verge of an attack of the delirium tremens.

Quarantines Against Gamblers.

Pittsburg, June 11.—All the gambling houses were closed last night by order of the mayor who says gamblers from Chicago and western cities under the impression that this is the promised land, have been flocking here and he wants it stopped.

The Mahdi Again on Deck.

Dongola, June 11.—Eleven thousand fugitives have arrived here from Khartoum and Berber. The mahdi is allowing Egyptian prisoners to depart. Sennar is well supplied and still holds out.

New Hampshire Democrats.

Cornell, N. H., June 11.—The democratic members of the legislature, in caucus last night nominated Hon. Harry Brigham of Littleton as a candidate for United States senator.

A Chicago Bailor Thief's Sentence.

Chicago, June 11.—"Ditchy" O'Keefe was to-day found guilty of stealing $6000 from the Third ward and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.
